

RUSSIAN TREATY IS IN SENATE'S HANDS

ABROGATION OF THE TREATY BY PRESIDENT TAFT DISCUSSED.

DEFICIENCY BILL VOTE

General News of Congress. Taft is on His Way to New York For Annular Program.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The senate met at noon and the Russian treaty was taken up with expectation of ratification of the president's notification to Russia before adjournment today.

London, Dec. 19.—Little comment is made by this evening papers on the notification on the abrogation of the Russo-American treaty communicated by the Russian government.

WORDING OF TREATY TO BE ABROGATED

This following is the text of the treaty with Russia, that has caused so much talk:

Following is the text of the treaty of 1832 with Russia:

Treaty of Commerce and Navigation.

Concluded Dec. 18, 1832; ratified by the Senate Feb. 27, 1833; ratified by the President April 8, 1833; ratifications exchanged May 11, 1833; proclaimed May 11, 1833.

In the name of the Most Holy and Indivisible Trinity.

The United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias, desiring to strengthen the relations of good understanding, which have hitherto so happily subsisted between their respective states, and of extending and consolidating the commercial intercourse between them, have agreed to enter into negotiations for the conclusion of a treaty of navigation and commerce, for which purpose the President of the United States has conferred full powers on James Buchanan, plenipotentiary near His Imperial Majesty, and His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias has conferred like powers on the Count Robert Count de Nessolrode, his vice-chancellor, knight of the Order of St. Anna and of many others, etc., and the said plenipotentiaries, having exchanged their full powers, found in good and due form, have concluded and signed the following articles:

Article I.

There shall be between the territories of the high contracting parties a reciprocal liberty of commerce and navigation. The inhabitants of their respective states shall mutually have liberty to enter the ports, places and rivers of the territories of each party wherever foreign commerce is permitted.

They will be at liberty to sojourn and reside in all parts whatsoever of said territories in order to attend to their affairs, and they shall enjoy, to that effect, the same security and protection as natives of the country wherein they reside on condition of their submitting to the laws and ordinances there prevailing and particularly to the regulations in force concerning commerce.

Article II.

Russian vessels arriving, either laden or in ballast, in the ports of the United States of America and, reciprocally, vessels of the United States arriving, either laden or in ballast, in the ports of the Empire of Russia, shall be treated on their entrance,

COMMISSION TALKS HEARD EVERYWHERE

INTEREST IN THE PROPOSED CHANGE GROWING EVERY DAY NOW PAPERS ARE FILED.

TO VOTE IN JANUARY

Mayor Nichols is Having List Verified and Will Perhaps Name January 23 as Election Day.

All kinds of merchandise and articles of commerce which may be lawfully imported into the ports of the United States of America in vessels of the United States of America without the payment of higher duties or charges of whatever kind or denomination levied in the name or to the profit of the government, the local authorities or of any private establishment whatsoever, than if the same merchandise or articles of commerce had been imported in vessels of the United States of America.

Article IV.

It is understood that the stipulations contained in the two preceding articles are, to their full extent, applicable to Russian vessels and their cargoes arriving in the ports of the United States of America and, reciprocally, to vessels of the said states and their cargoes arriving in the ports of the Empire of Russia, whether the said vessels clear directly from the ports of the country to which they respectively belong or from the ports of any other foreign country.

Article V.

All kinds of merchandise and articles of commerce, which may be lawfully exported from the ports of the United States of America in national vessels, may also be exported therefrom in Russian vessels without paying other or higher duties or charges, of whatever kind or denomination, levied in the name, or to the profit of the government, the local authorities, or of any private establishment whatsoever, than if the same merchandise or articles of commerce had been exported in vessels of the United States of America.

Article VI.

No higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the United States of any article, the produce or manufacture of Russia, and no higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the Empire of Russia of any article, the produce or manufacture of the United States, than shall be payable on the like article being the produce or manufacture of any other foreign country.

Article VII.

It is expressly understood that the preceding articles III, IV, V, and VI, shall not be applicable to the coastwise navigation of either of the two conditions which each of the high contracting parties reserves exclusively to itself.

Article VIII.

The two contracting parties shall have the right of having, in their respective ports, consuls, vice consuls, agents and commissioners of their appointment, who shall enjoy the same privileges and powers as those of the most favored nations; but if any such consul shall exercise commerce they shall be submitted to the same laws and usages to which private individuals of their nation are submitted in the same place.

The consuls, vice consuls and commercial agents shall have the right, as such, to sit as judges and arbitrators, in such differences as may arise between the captains and crews of the vessels belonging to the nation whose interests are committed to their charge without the intervention of the local authorities, or of the captain, should the order of the tranquility of the country or the said consuls, vice consuls or commercial agents should require their assistance to cause their decisions to be carried into effect or supported. It is, however, understood that this species of judgment or arbitration shall not deprive the contending parties of the right they have to resort on the return, to the judicial authority of their country.

Article IX.

The said consuls, vice-consuls, and commercial agents are authorized to require the assistance of the local authorities for the search, arrest, detention and imprisonment of the deserters from ships of war and merchant vessels of their country. For this purpose they shall apply to the competent tribunals, judges and officers, and shall in writing demand said deserters, proving by the exhibition of the registers of the vessels, the rolls of

HOTEL DISTRICT IS VISITED BY FLAMES

EARLY IN MORNING

Burning of the Open Board of Trade Building in Chicago Causes Panic.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Nearly one thousand guests were routed in panic early today by a fire which totally destroyed the Open Board of Trade building, a five-story landmark at 323 South La Salle street.

Within fifteen minutes after the first alarm was sounded at 2:30 o'clock the flames had reached the roof and the building had been consumed. The fire started in the basement and spread upward. The roof fell in a few minutes after the arrival of the first company. The three floors above were in the flames and were burning and it is not known if they are saved.

Alarm was given immediately for the guests in the Klatschhof Hotel, all of which were near enough to be touched by the flames from the burning structure. Bell boys, elevator men and the city firemen did heroic work in the hotel.

The light of the flames threw men and women alike into panic and there was a hurried scramble for clothing and valuables. Scores of persons appeared half clad in the hotel lobby and many dragged trunks or carried suit cases.

Although the window shades of the Klatschhof were burning on three upper floors at one time a steady play of water always kept the hotel out of danger. No person was injured in any of the hotels.

Directly across from the Open Board of Trade building on South La Salle street stands the Chicago Board of Trade and with which the Open Board of Trade had no connection.

Marshall Leffler, of the fire department, estimated the total loss at $200,000. His only comment as to the cause was that there would be a rigid investigation thinking that the fire may be of incendiary origin. Within the building many labor unions had their headquarters. The books and records of these are said to have been destroyed.

The fire was the most spectacular that has been seen in the downtown district of Chicago in months. Flames leaped more than 200 feet into the air and fire clouds were carried for blocks by the wind. In little more than an hour after it started the fire was under control.

The guests in the hotels represented every state in the union and there were a few from Europe. One little guest, driven from the New Victoria with her parents was May Edgren of Milwaukee, said by her father, Joseph L. Edgren, to have been the first white child ever born at Milwaukee City, Alaska, while her and his wife were gold hunting there. Two other Edgren children were with their parents.

At a breakfast table at a downtown hotel today following the Open Board of Trade fire, five members of the organization in Chicago, "Fire Funs" (tendered an impromptu toast-money to the memory of Jas. H. Moran who with 21 of his men went to their death in the falling walls in the Stock Yards fire one year ago this week. "Here's to him," announced one of the men at the breakfast table as he stood up and raised his glass.

"It was a year ago to-day two days about this time in the morning. Well you all remember as well as I do, concluded the speaker as he sat down.

"Yes," said another, "it is Christmas time again and here we are, but there on the west side, I move we appoint a committee."

"No you don't," interposed another of the party. "Every man here is his own committee." A short time later each one who attended the breakfast started for the shopping district with his purse in his hand.

GREAT WARBLING CONTEST IN ZURICH COMES TO CLOSE.

Canary Show Attracted Bird Fanatics From All Over Europe. Trained Singers in Competition.

Zurich, Dec. 19.—The great Canary Show, the most interesting of its kind ever held in any country of Europe, or elsewhere, closed here today with an extremely interesting warbling contest for valuable prizes by the most famous and best trained of the feathered singers in the exhibition.

The show, which during the week of its progress attracted thousands of bird fanciers from all parts of the continent, was not the first of its kind in this city, but by far the greatest in point of the number and importance of entries.

One of the most interesting features of the exhibition were the demonstrations of the most improved and modern methods of housing, feeding, training and breeding canaries. The show included a large exhibit of wild canaries from the island of Tenerife, which are used by canary breeders for cross breeding purposes. So great has been the success of the exhibition that the holding of another exhibition next year is already assured, with a prospect of surpassing the show just ended in the number of entries and in the scope of the exhibition in general.

CHAUFFEURS' STRIKE CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

Fifteen Are Injured When Fleeing Taxicab Crashes Into St. Louis Street Car.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 19.—Renewed police activity in connection with the strike of taxicab drivers resulted today from an accident on non-union drivers which terminated in a collision of a taxi with a street car early today while the non-union chauffeur was fleeing from his assailants.

BANCROFT SETTLES INHERITANCE CASES

Attorney General Back From Washington Where He Settled Several Tax Tangles.

Madison, Dec. 19.—Attorney General Bancroft has returned from New York where he settled two inheritance tax cases of long standing; one for $7,716.64, in the estate of Christian Bors, and the other for $311.78, in the estate of St. Paul and Northern Pacific railroad stock in Wisconsin.

"The papers had it that I was in Washington on politics. There were no politics about it at all. Mr. Ingham and I were there on business before the supreme court," said Mr. Bancroft.

DEFENDANT COMPANY WINS SUIT BROUGHT BY ROCKFORD MUTE

Judge Grimm Grants Motion to Direct Verdict for Defendant on Ground Plaintiff Was Guilty of Contributory Negligence.

Judge Grimm in the circuit court shortly before noon today granted the motion of Attorney Van Alstine for the St. Paul railway company defendant in the case of Roy Tunnison vs. the St. Paul Road, directing a verdict in favor of the defendant, on the grounds that the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence.

Attorney Van Alstine made his motion late yesterday afternoon and the entire morning session of the court was taken up in hearing the arguments of the defendant's and plaintiff's attorneys. At the close of these arguments Judge Grimm granted the motion and the jury was dismissed. This ends a trial which has been in progress for nearly a week and which has not been lacking in sensational aspects.

Tunnison brought suit for $25,000 damages for injuries received when he was hit by the company's engine and ambushed on the evening of Dec. 15th, 1910, while Tunnison in company with Rosie Leuck was walking on the track of the Janesville and Southern railway branch of the road between Center avenue and Cherry street. The plaintiff endeavored to show that the company had been negligent in running the engine at an excessive rate of speed and in operating without a headlight. It was also alleged that they failed to ring the bell or blow the whistle.

The defendant brought out testimony to show that there was a headlight and that the engine bell and whistle were sounded.

TWO ITALIANS DEAD IN DAYLIGHT BRAWL

Another Man Is Dying Following "Gang" Fight in New York City Park Today.

New York, Dec. 19.—A "gang" battle before daylight today in Thomas Jefferson park left two men dead and a third man dying. All the victims were Italian, but thus far the police have not learned the cause of the fight. Between fifteen and twenty men, in two divisions, took part in the battle. The police believe that one of the dead men is "Patsy" Amadio, who lived at 512 South Pearl street, Philadelphia.

The bullet pierced his forehead, Mrs. Krout said to the floor as she lay crying, "O, I've killed my poor little boy. I never meant to do it."

WABASH TO GO INTO RECEIVERS' CHARGE

By Qualifying With $300,000 Each, Receivers Will Take Charge of Wabash Railroad.

St. Louis, Dec. 19.—Receivers will take charge of the Wabash railway as soon as they appear before Judge Adams in the United States circuit court and qualify by filing $300,000 bonds each. These bonds must be given in ten days. Henry Miller, vice president and general manager of the road, in a statement today, says the receivership in no way will affect the operation of the road which has over sixteen thousand employees.

President Taft will be the guest of honor, while nearly all the members of his cabinet are expected to be on hand.

TAKE TESTIMONY IN THE PACKERS' TRIAL

JURY DRAWN IN THE CASE WAS COMPLETED AT NOON TODAY.

WILKINSON MADE PLEA

In His Opening Address He Charges Indicted Packers With Gross Suppression of Competition.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—The jury which will try the Chicago Packers indicted charged with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law was completed and sworn in at noon today. The taking of testimony will begin at once.

With the convening of court for the afternoon session district attorney Wilkinson, began his opening address in which he outlined the charges which the government makes against the packers.

In sharp, forceful sentences the government attorney pictured the course of the alleged combination which is accused of controlling the meat packing industry in violation of the federal law and characterized it at one point as "the most complete and systematic engine for the suppression of competition known to the industrial world."

Mr. Wilkinson declared that the accused packers of the company which they represented had for years dominated the meat industry and gave instances of their rapid growth and increase in power.

In detail he presented figures regarding the actual cost of a steer from the time it entered the stock yards of one of the defendants until in the shape of prepared products it was placed on the table of the ultimate consumer.

SHOOT HUSBAND AT GRILL ROOM SUPPER

Wife of Wealthy Fort Worth, Texas, Cattleman, Shoots Husband Who Was Dining With Friends.

Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 19.—Shot by his wife as he sat at supper in a grill room with a party of friends last night, Homer V. Krout, a cattleman well known in Texas, died this afternoon.

Mrs. Krout entered the dining room and catching sight of her husband slipped up to his table unnoticed. Her exclamation "Now I've got you!" attracted the supper party's attention. Mrs. Julia Sayward, one of Krout's guests, leaped to her feet and confronted the angered wife.

Mrs. Krout availed this interference, drew a gun from her muff and shot her husband.

The bullet pierced his forehead, Mrs. Krout said to the floor as she lay crying, "O, I've killed my poor little boy. I never meant to do it."

COLLEAGUES IN TAR PARTY FINED TODAY

Two Men Convicted of Complicity in Tarring of Miss Chamberlain, Each Fined Two Hundred.

Lincoln Center, Kan., Dec. 19.—Sherrill Clark and John Schmidt, under conviction for complicity in the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain, the Shady Bend school teacher, were sentenced by Judge Grover, in the district court today, each being fined $200 and costs. They will stand committed to jail until the fines and costs are paid.

PEACE CERTAIN WHEN POWERS AID DR. SANG

Six Greatest Powers Promise Dr. Sang Aid—Conference Runs Very Smooth at Opening.

Shanghai, China, Dec. 19.—Promises of peace in China became more definite today with the announcement that all six of the great powers, including Japan, Great Britain, United States, Russia and France are united in a co-operative effort to assist Dr. Wu Ting Sang and Tang Shao Yi in their negotiations.

It was learned today that the representatives of the six powers were preparing to offer formally their assistance for the speedy conclusion of an understanding. It is clearly understood that this action by the powers is taken in the most friendly manner.

The conference between Wu Ting Sang and Tang Shao Yi opened with surprising smoothness. There was a complete absence of any sense of strain which would have seriously impeded the diplomatic progress of the conference. It was unmistakably evident, however, that the continuation of Manchurian rule even as concerned the imperial throne at Peking, is considered likely by either side.

In this connection much significance is attached to the statement of Tang Shao Yi that he does not represent the throne, but rather the premier. Everything indicated the establishment of a republic and that Wu Ting Sang is prepared to concede to the ending of the dynasty.

JAPANESE SAVANT THE SPEAKER

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 19.—Professor Inazo Nitobe, a member of the imperial Japanese board of education and an instructor in the Imperial University of Tokyo, was the principal speaker this afternoon at the eighty-first convocation exercises of the University of Chicago.

CHICAGO VISITED BY FOG THAT MAKES STREET AS DARK AS MIDNIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Nearly everyone in Chicago who has business day begins before eight o'clock was late reaching work today. The reason was a fog of extraordinary density which enveloped the city and which was so thick it concealed all indications of daylight. It was nearly dark at midnight.

CALIFORNIA CITY PLANS UNIQUE CELEBRATION ON NEW YEAR'S EVE NEXT

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 19.—This city is planning a unique Christmas eve celebration. It is planned to have a mammoth chorus led by a European opera company, augmented by several trained singers from local choral organizations render a Christmas carol. The board of supervisors have gone on record as opposing a riotous observance of the advent of New Year's by adopting a resolution for the "suppression of excesses."

PASSENGER AGENTS WILL MEET IN JACKSONVILLE

Convention of American Association Will Be Held in Florida City

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 19.—Jacksonville is preparing an elaborate program of entertainment for the members of the American Association of Passenger Agents, who are to hold their annual convention in this city next week. Advice received by the local committee indicate that the gathering will be attended by representatives of nearly all the prominent railroads of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

PROF. THOMPSON REFUSES CALL TO JOIN STATE BOARD

Madison, Wis., Dec. 19.—An forceful and weak Prof. Carl V. Thompson of the University of Minnesota has declined the call to join the staff of the Wisconsin state board of public affairs in its investigations into the high cost of living, having decided to assume similar work at the Minnesota university. The Wisconsin board considers the new position one hard to fill and will not hurry in selecting a man.

OLYMPIC WAS TO BLAME FOR SERIOUS COLLISION

CLINTON GIRL WHO SPILLED KEROSENE SEVERELY BURNED

Miss Violet Benstead narrowly escaped fatal injuries when clothing took fire.

(Special to this Gazette.)

Clinton, Wis., Dec. 10.—Miss Violet Benstead, niece of Mrs. J. E. Corning and who makes her home at the Park Hotel, had a narrow escape last evening from being seriously burned. Miss Benstead was working in the kitchen of the hotel and in some manner spilled a quart of kerosene over the stove and some on her clothes. As there was a fire in the stove a blaze resulted, which enveloped her, and had it not been for prompt assistance of guests who were in the dining room the result might have been serious.

She sustained slight but painful burns on face and hands. The fire alarm was sounded and the 2 hose carts were ready for business in remarkably short order, but it was not necessary to turn on the water to extinguish the fire.

Clinton Locals.

Mrs. John Sayers of St. Louis, is here for the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Babcock. Mark E. Stewart was in Chicago yesterday.

Report comes from Des Moines, that R. N. Benson a former highly esteemed resident of Clinton, is very sick with pneumonia. His very large circle of friends here sincerely hope for his speedy recovery. His daughter, Irene has gone there to attend him.

Clifford Switzer, while pulling a playmate in a sled fell on the slippery walk Saturday morning and cut his head very badly.

C. W. Patchon sang a solo at the sacred concert at the Methodist church in Janesville Sunday night.

H. A. Anderson has decided on account of continued poor health to close out his general merchandise stock after January 1st. Mr. Anderson has been in business in Clinton a great many years and he will be greatly missed.

Prof. E. B. Hawks of the Peerless Poultry Plant company, returned Sunday night from the great Chicago Midwestern Poultry show at Chicago. Mr. Hawks reports that his exhibit won a place for his barred Plymouth rocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards of Harvard, spent Sunday with Mrs. Richards' father W. E. Dooley south of town.

A new store room is being built at the Elevators on Front street.

Mrs. Adelle Brownell of Chicago, has been visiting friends and relatives here for several days.

Mrs. P. M. Harris and son, Donald were in Chicago yesterday.

COMMITTEES NAMED BY LIBRARY BOARD

Will Make Arrangements for Convention of State Library Association in City in February.

At a recent meeting of the city library board committees were appointed to take charge of the coming convention of the State Library Association which will be held in this city February 21 to 23rd, 1912. The members of the three committees were as follows:

Finance, H. L. McNamara, Fred Capelle, Chas. Cleland, and William Bladen.

Publicity, Mrs. T. S. Nolan, H. H. Hilsa, George S. Parker, and B. G. Goslin.

Entertainment, Mrs. Lovejoy, Sr., and Mrs. John G. Rorford. Other members of this committee may be appointed later as will undoubtedly be necessary to secure a large working body for a committee of such importance as this. It has been suggested that the presidents of the various women's clubs in the city act on the committee.

It will be the duty of the finance committee to raise the amount of funds necessary to carry on the convention the delegates to which will be the guests of the city. It has been the wish of the library board that the people of the city realize that the convention is for them and their interest and attendance at all the meetings is solicited.

The board at its meeting also discussed the matter of showing the delegates the city and providing means of entertainment. It was decided that some means should be devised to give the librarians and visitors present a favorable impression of Janesville, and the co-operation of the entire city to this end is sought.

The programs which have been arranged are intended to interest the public, especially the evening numbers.

Holme's Store open evenings until Xmas.

HYGIENIC ART FOUND IN A MODEL CABINET

The Caloric Company Displaying Bit of Kitchen Furniture in McNamara's Windows.

Time is too short for the residents of Janesville to forget the recent "Made in Janesville" week at the West Side Bink. Many who visited the big exhibit failed to see all the sights presented, among them the new model sanitary kitchen cabinet being manufactured by the Caloric Company. This cabinet is along entirely new ideas and meets all the hygienic requirements for cleanliness. It is on exhibition in the big window of the McNamara Hardware Company where it is attracting considerable attention. It possesses every essential feature and convenience of the modern kitchen cabinet with the added feature of a porcelain white enameled cooktop. One of the features of the cabinet is a place for everything to the smallest detail, saving unnecessary steps to the housewife and still everything sanitary, even the work table being a white marble opalescent. It is well worth seeing.

FEW CHANGES TODAY IN LOCAL MARKETS

Stores Well Stocked With All the Novelties And Prices Will Remain Much the Same This Week.

Today's markets are very quiet and there are no changes either in prices or the list of products and the same things are holding forth on the counters of local stores. The rush of Christmas shopping is keeping the store-keepers busy and the commodities which have been brought in for the holiday demand will have a steady run until after Christmas. The markets today are as follows:

RESIDENT OF CITY FOR HALF CENTURY

Edmund Courtney, Who Died Here Yesterday Afternoon, Lived in Janesville Fifty-five Years.

Yesterday afternoon saw the passing of another pioneer resident of Janesville, Edmund Courtney, who has made his home in this city for fifty-five years. Mr. Courtney died at about five o'clock at his home, 1038 Western avenue, having been ill and gradually losing in strength for the last three months.

The deceased was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1836. He came to Janesville in 1861, and lived here ever since. He was a member of the Methodist church, and was a very kind and generous man. He was married to Mrs. Mary Courtney, who preceded him into eternity seven years ago. In 1861 he left New England and came to make his home in Janesville where he has lived ever since.

Surviving him are six children, three daughters and three sons, all of whom live in Janesville. They are Margaret and Catherine Courtney and Mrs. James Madison, and Dennis, Daniel, and Edmund Courtney, Jr.

Mr. Courtney, in his long residence here, cultivated a wide acquaintance, and had many friends, who will share with his children their grief and loss. Funeral mass for the departed will be held at nine o'clock Thursday morning at St. Patrick's church, and the remains will be buried in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Miss Nellie Kavanagh.

Funeral services for the late Miss Nellie Kavanagh, who died Sunday afternoon at her home, 153 South Academy street, will be held at nine o'clock tomorrow morning at St. Patrick's church.

STREET CAR THROWS FARMER FROM WAGON

W. E. Gleason Thrown From Wagon When Struck by Car and is Slightly Injured by Frictioned Horses.

A serious accident was narrowly averted this morning about eleven thirty, when the street car struck a farm wagon belonging to Wm. E. Gleason, breaking the reach of the vehicle and throwing Mr. Gleason to the ground where he was dragged along by the horses for some distance before he could control them. Mr. Gleason was crossing the track in front of Amherst's store and starting to turn down Court street when No. 33 which had come up from the rear struck the back end of the wagon. The breaking of the reach cut the front wheels free from the wagon body and Mr. Gleason was jerked out upon the street clinging to the lines. Although he sustained no serious injury he was pretty badly bruised by his rough ride.

JANESVILLE COUPLE WED IN CHICAGO ON FRIDAY

Miss Blanche Diller is Married to Leo Hogan at Home of Bride's Aunt.

Miss Blanche Diller and Leo Hogan, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Diller, in Chicago, Friday, Dec. 15. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Diller, father of the bride, who was present and gave his daughter in marriage. The marriage comes as a surprise to friends in Janesville.

OIL STORING DEVICE OF LATEST PATTERN

J. P. Baker Installs Newest Kind of Oil Storing Tanks And Measuring Device in Store.

The problem of the storing of paint, oil, and varnish, and the still more important item of insuring exact measure in all cases, has been solved by J. P. Baker, druggist, by the installation of a Bowser self-measuring and storage apparatus in the basement of his store. By means of tanks below and pumps on the ground floor, the old method of using measures has been done away with and an exact predetermined measure can be obtained each time by means of the gauge. Next, clean storage is assured and the chance of oil becoming "fatty" is done away with owing to the absolutely air-tight tanks. No dirty measures are necessary and danger of fire is eliminated.

Boiled and raw linseed and turpentine are now in stock and additional tanks will be added. Those interested are invited to come in and inspect.

WILL UNDERSELL MAIL ORDER HOUSES

Lumber Dealers Said to Be Planning Big Business Campaign Here.

It is understood that a new order of business is about to become a part of the lumber trade of Janesville. According to reports current on the streets today, the big mail order houses who have heretofore interested the people in their lines of mill work such as sash, doors, etc., will have extremely active competition here, and will be met in the matter of price, even to the quoting of better figures on this material than the big catalog houses have given. A part of the plan is said to be the carrying of large and complete stocks of every line here, so that the buyer can see exactly what he is securing—so that he may know that the quality is the best and also that he may secure his goods without the delay of a moment. The plan should recommend itself to the buyer instantly as with the guarantee of the dealer back of it, he is amply protected from every point and the results cannot help but be satisfactory in every way.

LOCAL "Y" TEAMS TO PLAY EVANSVILLE

Evansville Intermediates and Seniors to Play Here Tomorrow Night—Juniors Plan Return Trip With Deloit.

Two basketball games between the Janesville and Evansville Associations, Intermediates and Seniors respectively will open the season for the local Y. M. C. A. tomorrow in the auditorium. The teams will probably be well matched and fast snappy basketball is expected.

Practice for the Seniors the past three weeks has been strenuous and hard, and they are now in condition to run the Evansville five off from the floor. The game will be started with Wilson and Porter playing forwards, Shuler and Mott at guard, and Captain Kopp doing the jumping at center. McDonald will probably change off with one of the teams for the second half. Evansville recently held Milton College to a 31-31 tie, and it is expected that they will put up a good game against the local boys.

In the intermediate team work has not been progressing as long as it has with the Seniors but they are already in fine shape for the game. Kuehler and Stewart are working well at forward while Captain Soule and Atwood have qualified as guards. D. Cunningham playing center. This will be the first game for them also, and they will have a large schedule to play after the holidays.

Manager Hartwell has arranged for a game with Monroe there for February 16, for the first team and is working on a better schedule all the time.

Plan Trip For Juniors.
Secretary J. C. Kline received a letter from Secretary J. S. Stinson of Deloit asking that the Deloit boys might make an afternoon trip up here some date between Dec. 20 and Jan. 6, and that the Janesville boys will do the same thing later. Mr. Stinson plans to show the boys over the city making trips through the big factories and have a couple of basketball games here before returning home. This would be a very pleasant excursion for the boys and the local members would be glad of a chance to make a return visit. Kline and Physical Director Hartwell are heartily in favor of the plan and have written the Deloit people to that effect, trying to set a date.

WINS RACE EASILY
UNDER A HANDICAP

"Fy" Byrne, Though Giving His Rivals a Lead of Half a Lap, Defeats Them by Same Distance.

"Fy" Byrne showed his surprising speed and skill as a roller skater to marked advantage last evening when after giving his opponents in a sixteen lap race, a handicap lead of half a lap, he won over his nearest competitor by a lead of as much. His rivals were Charles Hossannator and Mr. St. John. Byrne overcame the handicap soon after the race got under way and from that point his victory was assured. Hossannator took second place.

RAVENSWOOD TEAM WILL PLAY FRIDAY

Crick Illinois Team Will Contend With Lakota Cardinals for Honors on Local Floor.

One of the hardest games of the season will be played by the Lakota Cardinals tonight on Friday evening of this week when they will meet the fast Ravenswood aggregation. The Illinois team is composed of individual stars and has a wide reputation for winning the majority of games played. At Detroit last season they defeated the leading contenders for the Michigan championship title and were accorded the honors. The team is composed of the same players this year and the Lakota team will put forth its best efforts to retrieve the defeat of but a few points last year.

ANOTHER TAG DAY
NEXT SATURDAY TO BOOST STAMP SALE

Miss Vlyman Confident That With One Last Effort City Can Reach High Mark This Year.

Another tag day is planned for Saturday of this week. Miss Helen Vlyman, in charge of the local campaign for the sale of the Red Cross seals, stated today that with one more big effort she was confident that the sale in Janesville would bring a state prize. Over a hundred dollars were raised by the tag day sale last Saturday and with another response of that kind the local managers claim that Janesville would be second to no other city of its size in the state.

Appeal to Merchants.
Merchants will receive another appeal from the stamp managers this week in an effort to increase the sale of the last week. The managers have suggested to a number of the business men that they place a seal on every package that goes from the store for one day. Several of the stores may adopt this plan.

Another plan suggested to increase the sale with the merchants is to require them to keep all stamps which remain unsold at the end of the week. At any rate the local stamp managers are determined to boost the sale this week and seek for all the encouragement possible on the part of the citizens.

Sale Thus Far.
A review of the sales made yesterday revealed the fact that 25,000 stamps had been sold thus far. This makes a total of $550 which has been raised in Janesville during the campaign but that amount falls far short of the total which the managers have set as the goal.

Smaller towns near Janesville are drawing on the local supply of stamps to some extent thus aiding in the sale. Orfordville sent in a request yesterday for 500 seals which were sent out last evening. But, encouraged by the present state of affairs, Miss Vlyman will push the campaign with redoubled efforts during the present week.

Mort H. Singer, who has sent us all the Princess Theatre, Chicago, success, will send the greatest hit of them all next week to Myers Theatre, Wednesday, December 20, under the auspices of The Elks. Harry Bulger in "THE FLIRTING PRINCESS," with a superior cast including such names as Dale Fuller, Helen Darling, Ellen Sheridan, Billy Keefe, and Harry Dickerson, not forgetting the "Three Bores American Headlines," including the now famous Egyptian Turkey Trot, and two features which, while highly dramatic, have been of the very largest help in promoting the successful run of one year in Chicago of the show, namely the "Oogie and Gloomie" dances.

U. B. BROTHERHOOD
DEBATES UNIONISM

Question Was "Resolved That Labor Unions Are of Little or No Benefit to the Public."

A debate on the question, "Resolved That Labor Unions Are of Little or No Benefit to the Public" was the entertainment feature of the meeting of the Brotherhood of the United Brotherhood church held last evening. John A. Raught presented the affirmative side of the question, and John Osborne upheld the union. Mr. Osborne, who has been a labor organizer and an ardent worker in their behalf, made a strong plea in their defense, but the judges decided that Mr. Raught gave the stronger argument and the decision was given in favor of the affirmative.

The Rev. Roberts and Mr. Van Pool took part in the discussion which followed the verdict of the judges. Both championed the cause of the labor unions. Mr. Van Pool stated that until recently he had been opposed to unions because he had not rightly understood their motives, but that he now employs union men and finds that it works to his advantage, because the true union man works from the Christian standpoint that every man should be paid all that he can earn. He declared that he gets better work out of union men and more satisfaction in every respect.

The next debate will be held some time in February as the January meeting will be given up because of contemplated revival services in the church. "The Commission Form of City Government" will be the subject of the next debate and able speakers will be secured to present both sides of the question.

NEW 55 HOUR LAW FOR FEMALE WORKERS

It at first seemed to be a freak piece of legislation but is resulting in much benefit to the large army of women who have to work for a living. It is certainly appreciated during the strenuous holiday season. To comply with the law it means nine hours work for five days and ten hours on Saturday. If it were not for the law naturally all stores would be open overnights, but how about the health of the employees? The law makes us all more thoughtful about the health question. It is a good law. We are glad to observe it and will close The Big Store each day except Saturday, at six o'clock.

DO NOT SLIGHT THE SECOND PAYMENTS

ALL CANDIDATES BUSY GETTING IN THE PROMISED SUBSCRIPTIONS—FINAL EFFORTS ARE NOW ON.

FRIENDS OF ALL CANDIDATES ARE INTERESTED IN INDICATIONS POINT TO A BIG WEEK.

CANDIDATES.
READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

Look over the following conditions carefully. Do not make up your mind that you understand any particular one until you are absolutely sure of its full meaning. If the precaution of careful reading is adhered to closely, there should be no vain regrets concerning rejected votes cast because they did not conform to the rules of the campaign. If in doubt concerning any point, ask questions until everything is perfectly clear.

First—All votes and remittances (no matter what time mailed), must be received at The Gazette office by 8 o'clock, Saturday night, December 23.

If not received by this hour, they are worthless and will not be counted. Second—All votes and remittances mailed after Thursday night should bear a special delivery stamp.

Third—If you intend to mail your votes, take precaution to find out exactly the time the registry department of your postoffice closes, and also in regard to the train service on which your votes will be carried.

Fourth—All remittances and votes should be addressed to the "Campaign Manager," and not to any individual. This is to prevent confusion.

Fifth—Be sure that your district number is on all ballots before sending to this office. This is very important and candidates may put district numbers on their own ballots.

Sixth—But in any case votes to be counted must be received in The Gazette office before 8 o'clock Saturday night, December 23. If not received by this hour, they are worthless and will not be counted.

SEVENTH AND MOST IMPORTANT.

From this date on candidates sending in subscription payments (on which votes are to be issued) should list the business in the following manner:

Be sure and send the duplicate receipts as usual with your list.

Take all your new subscriptions (on which votes are to be issued) and list. For example:

NEW BUSINESS.

Subscriber's Name	His Address	Amount He Pays	Votes Due

And so on.

Then list all the old business in the same manner but on a different sheet of paper.

In stating the votes due include also the amount you are entitled to with the coupon. Send in a coupon for each subscription sent in as the subscription.

Less than six days now remain for the candidates in the great prize campaign to get in their promised subscriptions, and their reserved votes. The closing days of the big event will be marked by a rush and hurry such as has seldom before been noticeable in an event of this sort either here or elsewhere.

Every candidate who has the faintest hope of winning the prize who desires will be in the campaign to the last moment, and will see that her friends pass in promised subscriptions and assist her in compiling a total that will win her a magnificent reward on the evening of December 23, 1911.

About Second Payments.

Do you fully realize the value of the second payment at this stage of the campaign? If not, read this:

A second payment means, when a subscriber has made one payment during the campaign and at a later date makes another payment, the last payment is considered a second payment. On such payments, votes are issued according to the following method:

The scale in force at the time the first payment was made is the scale used on the second payment and on the second payment the candidate will receive, in votes, the difference between the amount received on the first payment and the amount due had both payments been made at first.

To explain, taking for example when the first scale was in force: A person subscribed for one year by mail, now, at $3.00, and received 4,000 votes. Now, should that same person subscribe for a second year, he is still considered new and would receive 12,000 votes on the second payment.

But this is not all. We are now running a special coupon which, when it accompanies a subscription to our office, entitles the candidate to just three times the amount of the second payment, 36,000, for one year by mail. If it is a second payment. This same offer extends to second payment delivered by carrier. Don't you think it worth while to look these up?

This great offer is just the one which will make it possible for the lady who began late to still be a winner. She may be successful in getting many of these second payments and accumulate a large reserve by little effort. The ladies who win these prizes will be thoughtful ladies who figure a little and the one who figures will not neglect these second payments. In sending them in to the campaign department be sure and state when the first payment was made and amount of votes received.

The unusual amount of interest and enthusiasm manifested during the past week in behalf of this great prize campaign prove that ladies of the state are quick to appreciate a good offer and are putting forth every effort to win one of these elegant prizes. Thousands of votes went into the reserve last week, but indications lead the management to believe that more votes will be issued this week than the total of the last week.

It will depend largely upon the efforts of this week as to who will win and who will not win. Don't let this chance slip by. Your competitors will not, you may rest assured, and unless you get every available vote this week you may be defeated.

Four Days Remain.

Votes have been rolling in by the thousands and it is predicted that in another day or two the final rush will begin. The time from now on until the close of the campaign is very short. This means that it has become imperative that all interested in the race should get down to solid work at once if they entertain any hope of winning one of the prizes.

"Everything is progressing in the finest shape, and the candidates are doing everything in their power to pile up a large reserve for the closing days of the campaign," said the campaign manager (Saturday, December 16).

While everyone connected with the campaign was very busy, the force of clerks and bookkeepers has been well organized and everything is in readiness for the grand rush.

Candidates, do not let others carry away these valuable prizes without a struggle, but make up your mind that you will be the winner and go after the prizes in a manner that will coincide with your determination.

There are so many people who are willing to subscribe if they are asked. Get up your courage, candidates, and go after those backward subscribers. Nothing counts in votes so fast as new subscriptions, and there are plenty of people willing to pay their money down. If you do well the next three days you need not worry about the outcome Saturday evening.

Get right to work and get your share of the subscriptions to be had during the four days remaining.

Promised Ones.

Every day, friends of candidates inquire at the office when the candidates who had their promise will call on them for their subscriptions. Don't slight those promised ones; they are looking for you and will be disappointed if you do not call upon them as they want a hand in your winning.

Remember—Just four days more to "Be a Winner."

No More Votes Returned.

After today no more votes issued on subscription payments will be returned by mail to the candidates, but

WILL TEST CLAIM OF BERLIN SCIENTIST

Bacteriologists To Investigate Alleged Isolation of Germ of F. and Mouth Disease.

Paris, Dec. 18.—The bacteriologists connected with the Pasteur Institute and germ specialists throughout France have begun a series of careful experiments to test the justice of the claim of Dr. Siegel, the Berlin bacteriologist, who has just startled the scientific world by the announcement that he had succeeded in discovering and isolating the germ of the most dreaded disease of cattle. It had always been the opinion of scientists that the germ of that terrible disease could not be isolated because it was so small that it passed through every kind of filter. Dr. Siegel has named the bacillus Cytobacter and he is so confident of his discovery that he has staked his reputation as a scientist upon the truth of his statement. French scientists are inclined to be skeptical in the matter and are awaiting corroborating reports.

MILTON JUNCTION.

Mrs. Aven Ito is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winch.

Mrs. Claude Wells spent yesterday at L. M. Whittle's.

Mrs. L. H. Clarke and Miss Maggie Burdick were in Janesville on Monday.

C. S. Sutton is in Madison today.

The W. R. C. will hold a bazaar sale at Kelly and Stockman's store Wednesday afternoon. Everybody come.

Cured in His Own Home Town. Raelin, Wis. Jacob Tollner tells the way for his fellow townsmen to be cured of kidney and bladder trouble as he himself was cured. "For over 20 years I had kidney trouble and catarrh of the bladder. I read an advertisement of Foley Kidney Pills, got some and took them. Before taking them I was not able to work, but now I am improving every day. The action of my bladder was frequent and painful and I lost a great deal of sleep on that account the first part of the night, but since taking Foley Kidney Pills all this pain and annoyance has ceased, my back no longer aches and I feel better in every way. I gladly recommend Foley Kidney Pills to all who have kidney trouble, bladder drug Co.

Napoleon's Capricious Appetite.

Napoleon had a penchant for roast fowls, cutlets and smoking coffee. He ate at odd times, and only when he felt hungry, driving his cooks to distraction because when he called for food it had to be ready for him almost on the instant, or at least as soon as the table could be laid.

Advantages of Wit.

Man could direct his ways by plain reason, and support his life by tasteless food; but God has given us wit, and flavor, and brightness, and laughter, and perfume, to enliven the days of man's pilgrimage, and to "charm his palmed steps over the burning marle."—Sydney Smith.

Milton's Summing Up.
"What men have said many books are worthless; who reads incessantly and to his reading brings not a spirit and judgment equal or superior, uncertain and unsettled still remains—deep veined in books, and shallow in himself."—Milton.

Architecturally Speaking.
"I am the architect of my own fortune," said Mr. Duettin Stax. "Well," replied Mr. Holden Howes, "by being your own architect you're liable to get some curious effects, but you do save a lot of money on plans and specifications."

University Professors Think Plan Would Work Out Very Well.
Madison, Wis., Dec. 10.—The need of the honor system in "exams" is reduced to a minimum in the freshman chemistry classes at the University of Wisconsin this week. Prof. Louis Kahlenberg, head of the chemistry class, told the students that the students might take all the chemistry books and notes they could lay their hands on into the classroom for use in the examinations. The questions given are framed to provoke thought and the director believed that in working out problems assigned, the mental abilities of the students would be given a thorough test.

In Library School.
In recent examination at the Wisconsin Library school, it is reported only one girl received a mark of more than 80. Of thirty-five others, seven nearly passed and the remainder of the class (about thirty) were conditioned. Most if not all the students are high school graduates.

Hamlet Inmate.
"Was Hamlet Inmate?" Students of the University of Wisconsin law school will argue this question at the first session of a moot court, just organized, which will meet after the holidays. John A. Cadigan, Superior, and John H. Anderson, Joliet, Ill., will represent the defense; and Hal R. Martin, Stevens Point, and Chester H. Christensen, Ill. will take the opposite side. Judge E. Ray Stevens of the Dane county circuit court will preside.

Football Finds.
Among Coach Richard's recent "finds" as candidates for next year's football team at the University of Wisconsin are two brothers named Youngman, both of whom have played on the Upton college team, and who weigh 240 and 247 pounds. Other "finds" are Woods, a former Oklahoma star and Summels, formerly a Michigan back. Football training is being given in doors during the winter, and the coaches are being aided by Moll and others.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends for their kind contribution to us, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Poshin on Sunday Dec. 17. May God bless them all. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ruesch and family.

MAGNOLIA PIONEER DIED LAST EVENING

Thomas Drew Passed Away on Homestead Where He Settled Sixty-three Years Ago.

Thomas Drew, a "forty-niner," one of the earliest settlers and most prominent farmers in the town of Magnolia, died at eleven o'clock last night at his home three miles west of Fostville, where he had lived almost continuously for sixty-three years. Mr. Drew was about eighty-six years old and had been in poor health for a year previous to his demise. He was born in county Louth, Ireland, and emigrated to this country before Wisconsin had become a state. Surviving him are his wife and two children. The daughters are Mrs. Mary Monahan and Mrs. C. M. Stillson of Denver, Colorado, Mrs. T. A. Ryan and Helena Drew, living at home; the sons, John, of this city; Thomas of South Dakota, and William Talbot, Daniel, Hubley and Matthew, residing in Fostville. Funeral announcements will be made later.

PLACED THIRD PIER OF NEW BRIDGE THIS MORNING

First Pair Sunk and Spits Placed. Will Start to Fill Tubes With Concrete This Week.

Favored by the mild and clear weather, the Central States Bridge company's crew, at work on the substructure of the bridge street bridge, is making steady progress. This morning another pier, the north member of the second pair out from the east bank, was sunk to the river bottom. All the work that remains to be done on the first pair is to fill them with concrete and materials are already on hand for this purpose, which will probably be accomplished before the end of the week.

TODAY'S EVANSVILLE NEWS

EVANSVILLE

Evansville, Wis., Dec. 10.—Miss Hattie Axtell entertained the Women's Club at her home last evening. The first three chapters of "The Blue Bird" were studied and discussed. Mrs. Walter Tuller returned to her home in Milwaukee Monday after visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hurt Baker.

Miss Lettie Jones of Chicago is visiting at the home of her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Jones of this city.

Miss June Baker has returned to Beloit to resume her college work, after a brief visit at her parents' home here.

Mrs. George Wolf, Sr., was a business visitor in Janesville Monday afternoon.

Master Donald Tolles is somewhat improved after his recent illness. Miss Madeline Antos from Madison was an over Sunday visitor at her home here.

Lewis Spencer has returned from a visit with his daughter, Miss Alice Spencer, of Milwaukee.

About twenty members of the Kensington club were entertained at the home of Miss Francis Seniors Monday evening at "Joke" Christmas tree.

Louvre's Honorable Descent. The Paris Louvre, now the world's finest art gallery, was originally a royal residence in the reign of Dagobert, about the year 628 of our era.

"BEST ON EARTH" This is the verdict of H. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "For case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. Badger Drug Co.

Part of the evening was spent playing cards, after which light refreshments were served. Last, but not least, Santa Claus arrived with a jingle of sleigh bells and a gaily dressed troop was displayed. The many presents and jokes were distributed by Santa Claus, and much laughter was caused by the many witty verses he found up on the gifts and read. Many of the jokes were very appropriate and the verses and poems original.

the crown, or by other official documents that such individuals, formed part of the crown; and, this reclamation being thus substantiated, the surrender shall not be refused.

Such deserters, when arrested, shall be placed at the disposal of the said consuls, vice-consuls, or commercial agents, and may be confined in the public prisons, at the request and cost of those who shall claim them, in order to be detained until the time when they shall be restored to the vessels to which they belonged or sent back to their own country by a vessel of the same nation or any other vessel whatsoever. But if not sent back within four months from the day of the arrest they shall be set at liberty and shall not be again arrested for the same cause.

However, if the deserter should be found to have committed any crime or offense his surrender may be delayed until the tribunal before which his case shall be depending shall have pronounced its sentence and such sentence shall have been carried into effect.

Article X.

The citizens and subjects of each of the high contracting parties shall have power to dispose of their personal goods within the jurisdiction of the other by testament, donation, or otherwise, and their representatives, being citizens or subjects of the other party, shall succeed to their said personal goods, whether by testament or ab intestate, and may take possession thereof, either by themselves or by others acting for them, and dispose of the same, at will, paying to the profit of the respective governments such dues only as the inhabitants of the country wherein the said goods are or shall be subject to pay in like cases.

And in case of the absence of the representative, such care shall be taken of the said goods as would be taken of the goods of a native of the same country. In like cases, until the lawful owner may take measures for receiving them.

And if a question should arise among several claimants as to which of them said goods belong, the same shall be decided finally by the laws and judges of the land wherein the said goods are.

And where, on the death of any person holding real estate within the territories of one of the high contracting parties, such real estate would by the laws of the land descend on a citizen or subject of the other party, who by reason of allegiance may be incapable of holding it, he shall be allowed the time fixed by the laws of the country, and in case the laws of the country actually in force may not have fixed any such time, he shall then be allowed a reasonable time to sell such real estate and to withdraw and export the proceeds without molestation and without paying to the profit of the respective governments any other dues than those to which the inhabitants of the country wherein said real estate is situated shall be subject to pay, in like cases.

But this article shall not derogate, in any manner, from the force of the laws already published, or which may hereafter be published by his majesty, the Emperor of all the Russias to prevent the emigration of his subjects.

Article XI.

If either party shall hereafter grant to any other nation any particular favor in navigation or commerce it shall immediately become common to the other party, freely where it is freely granted to such other nation or on special stipulations, now actually in force, and which may be renewed hereafter, which stipulations are in no manner connected with the existing regulations for foreign commerce in general, and two high contracting parties, wishing to remove from their commercial relations every kind of ambiguity or subject of discussion, have agreed that the special stipulations granted to the commerce of Prussia and of Sweden and Norway, in consideration of equivalent advantages granted in these countries, by the one to the commerce of the Kingdom of Poland and the other to that of the Grand Duchy of Finland, shall not, in any case, be invoked in favor of the relations of commerce and navigation sanctioned between the two high contracting parties by the present treaty. The present separate article shall have the same force and value as if it were inserted, word for word, in the treaty signed this day, and shall be ratified at the same time.

In faith whereof, we, the undersigned, by virtue of our respective full powers, have signed the present Separate Article, and affixed thereto the seal of our arms.

Done at St. Petersburg, the sixteenth day of December, in the Year of grace one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two.

In 1868 an additional article was negotiated covering trade-marks, which was added to the treaty of 1832. This article was concluded Jan. 27, 1868, and ratified by the Senate July 2, 1868; ratified by the President Aug. 14, 1868; ratifications were exchanged Sept. 21, 1868, and proclamation was made Oct. 15, 1868. This article reads:

The United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias, desiring to establish that there should be an additional article to the treaty of commerce between them of the sixteenth day of December 1832, having for this purpose named as their plenipotentiaries the President of the United States, William H. Seward, Secretary of State, and His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias, the privy councillor, Edouard de Stoeckel, accredited as his envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States, and the said plenipotentiaries, after an examination of their respective full powers, which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed to and signed the following:

Additional Article.

The high contracting powers, desiring to secure complete and efficient protection to the manufacturing industry of their respective citizens and subjects agree that any counterfeiting in one of the two countries of the trade-marks affixed in the other on merchandise to show its origin and quality shall be strictly prohibited and repressed, and shall also ground for an action of damages in favor of the injured party, to be prosecuted in the courts of the country in which the counterfeiting shall be proven.

The trade-marks in which the citizens or subjects of one or two of the countries may wish to secure the right of property in the other must be lodged exclusively—to wit: The marks of citizens of the United States in the department of manufactures and inland commerce at St. Petersburg, and the marks of Russian subjects at the patent office in Washington.

This additional article shall be terminable by either party pursuant to the twelfth article of the treaty to which it is an addition. It shall be ratified by the President, by and with the consent of the Senate of the United States and by His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias, and the respective ratifications of the same shall be exchanged at St. Petersburg within nine months from the date hereof, or sooner if possible.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the present additional article, in duplicate, and affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Washington the 27th day of January, in the year of grace one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TO TRAVEL HOME IN STYLE.

Special Train Service Offered to the Holiday Seekers.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 19.—Special train service exceeding past accommodations will be offered by the Northwestern road for University of Wisconsin students who return to their homes next Friday. Practically the entire body of out-of-town students will leave the city on that day, and four special sections will be run between Madison and Milwaukee, Green Bay and Chicago. The first train out, at noon, will run to Milwaukee, making no stops. It will be solid parlor-car. The second section will consist of coaches and chair cars, for passengers for Milwaukee and the north shore. No stops will be made between Madison and Milwaukee. The third section will go to Green Bay, turning on the way at Jefferson Junction and avoiding transferring of passengers and baggage. North of Watertown all stops will be made. The first section of the Chicago train by way of Janesville will leave during the noon hour. All these trains are for the sole accommodation of students. The regular trains to the same points will be run also.

The Northwestern management announces that the finest equipment and accommodation will be placed at the command of the students.

Ozark Land Congress.

Springfield, Mo., Dec. 19.—A large and representative attendance marked the opening here today of the second annual Ozark Land Congress. Governor Hadley delivered the opening address. At the afternoon session Col. R. E. Smith of Sherman, Texas, and Frank D. Fuller, secretary of the Tri-State Fair of Memphis, Tenn., were the principal speakers. The sessions will continue until Saturday.

Bourke Cochran to Speak.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 19.—W. Bourke Cochran of New York has accepted an invitation to deliver the principal address at a banquet to be given by the Bankers' Club of Chicago at the Hotel Sherman tomorrow night. Mr. Cochran's subject will be "The Irreconcilable of Business and Government in the Capital Necessity of Our Civilization."

Rear Admiral Rodgers to Retire.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19.—By operation of law Rear Admiral Raymond P. Rodgers, president of the Naval War College at Newport, will be placed on the retired list tomorrow on account of age. Captain William L. Rodgers, a cousin of Admiral Rodgers, will succeed him as president of the Naval War College.

Suggestions for Christmas Gayeties.

TRADITION and superstition have combined to make us believe that the veil between the seen and the unseen is slightly thinner at the Christmas season than at any other time. Spirits are supposed to return to their former abode at the jolly Yuletide season. All sorts of queer things happen, as we all know. The oven kneel in their stalls, church bells can be heard wherever a church has stood; and all sorts of mysterious things are going on, if one has the eyes to see and the ears to hear them.

For this reason a ghost party is a very appropriate form of entertainment for the holiday season. The invitation should read:

The Shade of Miss Smith
Is requested

At a Gathering of Ghosts
To be held at _____

Kindly come in your winding sheets.

The walls of the room in which the guests are received should be hung with white cheese-cloth, or covered with white tissue paper, and the lights should have white paper shades lined with blue. Alcohol-burning here and there, to which a pinch of salt has been added, heightens the gruesome effect.

Each guest should be draped in a sheet and his or her head enveloped in a pillow case or fetching little cap. But the head should be entirely covered. A white mask should be worn, and white gloves. As each woman enters, the hostess says, "Sh-sh-h-h," which the guests, already assembled, repeat. On the arrival of each man, there are prolonged deep groans. No one speaks above a sepulchral whisper and if some one can occasionally contribute a "graveyard cough," it adds to the thrills.

In the dressing room or as each enters the parlor, he is invested with some appropriate initiation—a dab of red chalk to suggest blood, a skull, a bone, a picture of a spider, anything gruesome. By this time they are known. Each is also given a card and pencil and at the sound of a bell slowly talked, a certain time is allotted to discover the identity of each. When the time is up, the cards are dropped into a black covered box. The one who has guessed the greatest number correctly gets a prize. Also the one who has most cleverly concealed his identity.

If square dances can be walked through in a solemn, stately manner, or a waltz danced slowly to the most lugubrious music possible, it all adds to the fun.

Refreshments should be served rather early, for then sheets and masks are removed, and the evening is thereafter enjoyed in the usual manner.

It is in keeping to have the refreshments carry out the idea of the white in the decorations as far as possible. The dishes used can be plain white; and sandwiches, using the white meat of chicken, angel cake, tresses, vanilla or other white ice cream, white mints and other white bonbons, will all help along the effect.

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

CATHERINE is growing to be quite a good-looking girl. She is almost pretty today," were words which caught her ear now and then and how welcome were the sounds. TO LOOK ALMOST PRETTY IS AN ACQUISITION OF HIGH DEGREE TO a girl, who has been looking plain the last fifteen years of her life, than a beauty from the cradle can ever know.

I wonder if we all realize how much of the keenest happiness in life comes from acquisition—from getting just a little bit more than we have.

We are apt to think of the child who is born rich, or beautiful, or to high station, as the happiest and most fortunate of human beings.

I wonder if he may not be the least fortunate. Except insofar as he acquires in some line in which he is not actually endowed.

I know a beautiful woman who has been admired for her loveliness ever since she was a baby. She is very fond of music, and although she has no great natural talent, has applied herself very diligently and learned to play the violin unusually well. A compliment on her beauty apparently means little or nothing to her. A compliment on her violin playing makes her happy for days. The acquired blessing, although not nearly so great in degree, means far more to her than the blessing she has always possessed.

A little invalid friend of mine is very happy this fall, because she does not have to wear braces any more, and is often free from pain.

How much more happiness her half health gives her, than splendid, abounding, overexuberant health creates in most of those who have always possessed it!

We were speaking the other day, of a hard working little girl who has just bought her first pretty afternoon gown. She used to wear simple white blouses and dark skirts to the affairs, for which the other girls put on their dainty creations of silk and velvet. Someone compared this girl plainly with another girl in her crowd, who has always had a wardrobe overflowing with lovely gowns for all occasions. I think the pity was misplaced. I don't doubt that the little worker feels far richer, with her first dainty gown, than the girl to whom pretty things have always been a matter of course feels with her perfectly stocked wardrobe.

It isn't what you have—it's what you add to what you have—that gives the keenest pleasure.

Don't envy the possessor of inherited wealth; don't envy the girl who has always been a beauty; don't envy the child born to a dukedom; don't envy the naturally fascinating woman who has had a dozen men at her feet ever since she can remember. If you must envy someone, reserve your envy for those better entitled to it.

Envy the man who has been scrapping along on twenty dollars a week, and who is offered a position of untold wealth at forty; envy the girl, who having been plain for the first fifteen years of her life, begins to hear herself called "almost pretty;" envy the child of the garbageman who becomes a doctor; envy the unattractive girl, who has never had any attention all through her girlhood, when she at last finds one faithful lover.

For these are the fortunate—these are the enviable folks who really know what intoxicating happiness is.

UP-TO-DATE HOUSEKEEPING.

Christmas Goose Must be Young and the Stuffing Savory.

By Alice E. Whitaker.

The Christmas goose to be worthy the name must be of the right age and an old bird is not worth its cost. To prove satisfactory it must not be over eight months old, and much fat is a sign that the meat will be juicy and tender. A goose raised especially for the Christmas trade, called a "green goose" is not over four months old and brings a fancy price. In buying look sharp for pin feathers, yellow feet and firm flesh and remember that, whatever its quality, the goose is not an economical bird to buy because there is more bone in proportion to flesh than in a turkey or chicken and there is also a good proportion of fat.

The first thing to do towards preparing the goose for the oven is to scrub it well with a vegetable brush and a hot solution of borax and water or with soap and water. This will help to draw out the excess of oil from the skin. Rinse well and wipe dry; then draw and rinse the inside then pick off all the loose fat that can be taken off. Cut the neck close to the body leaving enough skin to fold over on the back after stuffing the breast not very full. Many cooks put all the stuffing in the breast and none, or very little, in the body.

Now or skewer together then truss the wings and legs close to the body; rub salt and pepper over the outside and lay on a rack in a dripping pan. Put three slices of onion and a cup of boiling water in the pan. Although the goose has an excess of fat it is well to lay several thin slices of salt pork over the breast. As it cooks the pork will help to draw out the fat of the goose and will give a better flavor. If you have never used the pork do not hesitate to try it. A goose weighing nine pounds should cook about two hours in a hot oven. Baste every fifteen minutes using the liquid in the pan and dredge with flour after each basting. At the end of forty minutes take the goose out, remove the pork and drain the oil from the pan. Set the goose back and finish the basting carefully the basting and dredging as directed.

Now if it be your ill fortune to buy an old or tough goose prepare it carefully and stuff then put into the fire; into a braising pan or a steamer and cook until tender. Then place it on a rack in a pan, dredge and bake until browned basting it several times.

The stuffing for a goose should always be lightly seasoned and preferably with sage and onions. Make it with bread crumbs if you like but for a goose, mashed potatoes, at least in part, are liked better. Some prefer a chestnut stuffing but it is some work to prepare the chestnuts and after all not so very much of the stuffing is eaten as it serves its purpose more as a seasoning to the bird.

A good rule calls for both potato and bread. Add to two cups of hot mashed potato one and one-quarter cups of soft bread crumbs taken from the center of a stale loaf, one-third cup of butter, one beaten egg, half a level tablespoon of salt, a level teaspoon of sage, one-quarter cup of suit pork chopped very fine and a small onion minced as fine as possible.

While some cooks never serve gravy with roast goose others make a fine giblet gravy. Pour off all the fat that will run clear then turn the remainder into a small sauce pan. Add the water in which the giblets have been cooked until tender, thicken with flour and cook five minutes. Add the giblets chopped rather fine.

MORE FISH DISHES.

The oyster season is well opened, and now they are as reasonable in price as they will be.

Oyster Rolls.—Cut a pint of oysters in halves and parboil one minute, add a half teaspoon of salt, a dash of cayenne, a teaspoonful of lemon juice, a teaspoon of minced parsley or a grating of nutmeg and a half cup of thick cream sauce. Remove the crust from half a dozen French rolls, brush inside and out with butter and fill with the prepared oysters, replace the covers and set in a hot oven for ten minutes. Serve very hot.

Broiled, Smoked, Fennel, Haddock.—Cover a piece of smoked haddock or salmon with boiling water; let stand fifteen minutes and then drain. Broil fifteen minutes over coals or under the gas flame, and serve with eclaire sauce.

Eclipse Sauce.—Heat a tablespoonful of butter and add a tablespoonful of flour; cook a minute. Add a cup of water and stir until thickened. Season with salt and cayenne, pour on to a well-beaten egg; add a tablespoonful of lemon juice and reheat carefully. A cucumber stewed and added to this sauce makes a delicious addition.

Oyster and Grapefruit Salad.—Parboil one and a half pints of oysters; drain, cool and remove the tough muscle. Cut three grapefruit in halves crosswise, remove pulp and drain. Mix oysters with the pulp and season with six tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup, four tablespoonfuls of the grapefruit juice, a tablespoonful of salt. Reheat grapefruit skins with mixture. Garnish with curled celery and chill before serving.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A LIBERTY MARTYR OF LONG AGO

By A. W. MACY.

On June 7, 1381, Wat Tyler was chosen leader by 60,000 men to remonstrate with Richard II. against the oppressions of the people. On June 15 he was dead. In eight days this man, of whose antecedents and personality we know nothing, made for himself a permanent place in English history. During that time he commanded a great army; he confronted the king as an equal; he ordered the execution of the two chief ministers of the crown, and it was done; he wrested from the king a promise of social reform. But in the hour of victory he was struck down by the hand of an enemy, and the great uprising failed in its undertaking. Yet it was not altogether in vain. It stirred to life the desire for personal liberty in the laboring people, a desire that has grown to giant proportions with the passing years. This was the first time that English peasants and laborers asserted that they were men. Centuries afterward some of the seed thus sown found its way across the sea, and today 90,000,000 free Americans owe a debt of gratitude to the memory of Wat Tyler and his men.

Thought for Today
by MRS. ROBERT M. LAFOLLETTE.

PROPORTION.
DISCUSSING what makes a successful woman's page, an experienced newspaper man said that perhaps "food value of milk" ought to interest women, but "how to reduce the size of the waist" brings the subscribers. When I laughed, a serious-minded friend called me to account. She thought his remark no joke, and it is a serious commentary on womankind.

It certainly is no joke if women are not interested in "food values" when presented in an understandable way and made applicable to everyday living. Nor, when we reflect, is the tendency to take on flesh, especially about the hips and abdomen, destroying the physical proportion, adding size and weight to both body and spirit, a laughing matter. It is a very good reason when women really awaken to the importance of acquiring and maintaining bodily standards of health and beauty.

In a much talked-of novel the author makes the only normally happy and sensible woman grow fat contentedly, while he portrays the frivolous woman as more concerned about the "waist-line than complexion," which was the supreme beauty test of earlier novelists. Judged by the relative space devoted exclusively to women, it would seem that newspaper managers calculate that the interest of women is about equally divided between physical culture and styles in dress. It is only a short time since fashions alone occupied this whole field.

And in all seriousness, I say that when the standards of novels and newspapers indicate that ideals of bodily proportion share women's thought equally with dress, it signifies progress. Awakened interest is very important. It is too bad there should be so much wasted effort, and that we should begin bodily education so superficially. But is it not so in everything? We should rejoice whenever the loaves begin to work.

FRINGE TRIMMED PETTICOAT.

Fringes appear everywhere, now-a-days, and anyone who has some yards of old fringe in a trunk in the attic, or on grandmother's wedding gown, may bring it forth, and by fastidious, by applying it almost anywhere.

Quite the latest in petticoats is thus adorned with a deep fall of all-clip fringe. The one which I have here chosen to illustrate was a black silk jersey topped, affair, very close and clinging, with an accordion plaited flounce of messaline in three bands of vivid red, scarlet, cardinal and crimson. Over this, fell the black fringe, in a very dashing effect, suggesting the costume of a Spanish gipsy dancer.

The fringe, besides being good to look upon, had its practical side, as it tended to hold the soft plaited ruffle about the ankles, in the modish clinging fashion of the day.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

BUTTERMILK A "FOOD."

An Oklahoma jury recently decided, after considering expert testimony, that buttermilk is a "food" not a "drink." Many persons are in the habit of drinking a glass of buttermilk occasionally as they would drink water, and in restaurants it is customary to flav milk with tea and coffee, so that many drink milk without reference to the nutritive needs of the system. Two or three glasses of buttermilk may well serve as breakfast, especially in hot weather; and it should be sipped slowly, not drunk as water is usually drunk, but treated as a food.

Thousands Now Use This Low-Cost Cough Syrup

A Family Supply for 50c, Saving You $2.—The Quickest, Best Thing You Ever Used, or Money Refunded.

The prompt and positive results given by this inexpensive cough medicine have caused it to be used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy. It gives instant relief and will usually wipe out the most obstinate, deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours. It quickly succeeds, even in whooping cough and croup.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, when mixed with home-made sugar syrup, makes a full plate—a family supply of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy that money could buy, at a saving of $2. Easily prepared in five minutes—full directions in package.

Children take Pinex Cough Syrup willingly, because it tastes good. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both excellent features. Splendid for hoarseness, throat tickle, bronchitis, etc., and a prompt, successful remedy for incipient lung trouble.

Pinex is a potent and highly concentrated, refined compound of imported Norway White Pine extract and is rich in quinine and other natural healing plus elements. Simply mix it with sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BADEN-POWELL MAY VISIT JANESVILLE

Men in Charge of Local Scout Organization Will Invite Founder of British Scouts to Visit City.

Managers of the boy scout movement in Janesville will invite Lieutenant General Sir Robert B. S. Baden-Powell, founder of the British scouts, to come to the city on his tour of this country during February and March.

The second annual gathering of the leaders of the Boy Scouts of America and the first big review of the boy scouts themselves will begin on Feb. 9th next. On that day Sir Baden-Powell will join the leaders of the Boy Scouts of America for a conference and soon afterward, accompanied by James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, will begin a tour to review hundreds of thousands of scouts throughout the country. He will confer with the leaders giving them the benefit of his years of experience in handling boys; he will address parents telling them the aims of the Scout movement and what it can accomplish; he will talk to the boys face to face and watch their drill.

Tour of Country. At the end of the season in New York General Baden-Powell and Chief Scout Executive West will start on a tour of the country from New York to San Francisco. They will spend from February 11 to March 13 in their tour visiting the important cities and scout centers.

General Baden-Powell under the auspices of the Boy Scouts of America will meet face to face hundreds of thousands of boys. Arrangements are being made by which the Boy Scouts may see and hear Baden-Powell and give exhibitions in his honor. He will lecture to them in 20 or 25 of the principal cities. Those lectures will be free to Boy Scouts and their parents, for the leaders of the Scout movement have decided that no expense shall be incurred by the scouts themselves in having an opportunity to visit with the hero of the British Boy Scouts and the man who has done so much for millions of boys throughout the world. Chief Executive West is arranging for the trip of Baden-Powell and hopes to have many thousands of scouts gathered from surrounding suburbs and nearby towns in every city where Baden-Powell will stop. It also will be Mr. West's first tour of the hundreds of thousands of boys in his organization.

LAST POULTRY SHOW IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

Twenty-third Exhibition of New York Poultry and Pigeon Association Opened Today.

New York, Dec. 10.—The last poultry show to be held in Madison Square Garden, which is to be closed next spring to make way for a mammoth office structure, opened today and will continue until Saturday night. The exhibition is the twenty-third annual affair under the auspices of the New York Poultry, Pigeon and Rat Stock Association. In the number and variety of exhibits it is declared to surpass all of the previous ones. To the exhibition of turkeys, chickens, ducks, geese, rabbits and other varieties of poultry and rat stock a notable display of blue-blooded felines will be added Thursday, when the annual show of the Atlantic Cat Club will be opened in connection with the poultry show.

PROHIBITION MEETING AT LIMA CENTER ON THURSDAY EVENING

Arrangements have been made for Alfred H. Tainton of Madison, prohibition state secretary to speak in the Methodist church at Lima Center next Thursday evening, Dec. 21. Mr. Tainton is said to be a very interesting speaker, instructive, breezy and convincing. He will explain why the "dry" wave has broken and tell how the break can be made to serve the cause to ultimate triumph. Mr. Tainton began his anti-liquor work in California where he was raised, continued it Colorado for two years and has been in Wisconsin for two years. The lecture will be free and all are invited.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Covered with Eruption to Back of Ears So They Hardly Knew What He Looked Like. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In 4 Weeks Face Fine and Clean.

"Our little boy Gilbert was troubled with eczema when he was a few weeks old. His face was covered with sores and in back of his ears. The poor little fellow suffered very much. We hardly knew what he looked like. The face looked like a red and raw meat. We used little bags of cloth over his hands to prevent him from scratching. He was very restless at night. His little face itched."

"We consulted two doctors at Chicago, where we resided at that time. After trying all the medicine of the two doctors without any result, we read of the Cuticura Remedies and at once bought the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Following the directions carefully and promptly we saw the result, and after four weeks, the dear child's face was as fine and clean as any little baby's face. Every one who saw Gilbert after using the Cuticura Remedies was surprised. He has a head of hair which is a credit for any boy of his age, three years. We can only recommend the Cuticura Remedies to every body." (Signed) Mrs. H. H. Abbott, Box 883, West Point, Neb., Oct. 26, 1910.

Altitude, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 25¢ book on the skin will be sent free, on application to Puffer Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 141, Boston.

JOHNSTOWN MAN LOST FOUR COWS THAT ATE SECOND GROWTH TOBACCO

Charles Scharling Had Four of Best Animals in Herd Taken Saturday—Johnstown News.

Johnstown, Dec. 18.—Chas. Scharling lost four of his best cows last Saturday in a strange way. When he went to the yard in the evening he found one dead and three died afterwards. Two Veterinarians were called and differed in opinion, one thought death was due to poison the other indigestion. The real cause it appeared later was from eating second growth tobacco leaves.

SNOW IS PREDICTED FOR LAST OF WEEK

Foster's Weather Bureau Predicts Snow in Northern Section for Christmas Season.

Copyrighted 1911, by W. T. Foster. Last bulletin in gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent Dec. 17 to 21, warm wave 16 to 20, cool wave 18 to 23. This disturbance will be a continuance of the warm spell and will be followed by a cold wave with five or six days of cold weather. More than usual snow will accompany this storm in northern states and more than usual rain in the south, except not much precipitation in Texas and New England.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about Dec. 23, cross Pacific slope by close of 24, great central valleys 2 to 26, eastern sections 28. Warm wave cross Pacific slope about Dec. 23, great central valleys 25, eastern sections 27. Cool wave will cross Pacific slope about Dec. 26, great central valleys 28, eastern sections 30.

Warm With Snow. The feature of this disturbance will be a return to warmer than usual weather, accompanied by more than usual snows north and rains south. The rains and snows last half of Dec. ember promise good for winter wheat and the prospects are that this more than important cereal will begin its spring growth early in April in better than usual condition.

Spring wheat promises to start with unusually favorable conditions and if the crop can be sown early the probabilities will be much in favor of a good crop. Prospects are really good for all crops to start well except early spring truck gardening in the south.

Present indications particularly in first of May, should inspire all with a hope for a prosperous 1912 year. Recent events indicate a better understanding between capital and labor and between the government and big business.

I will not now discuss crop prospects beyond May 1 but up to that time I can see nothing but splendid prospects and encouragement for the farmer and planter and to all who are to be benefited by the success of those two most important elements of our commonwealth.

The crop year partial failure of 1911 marked high price and hours down on those out of employment and many fear the results that may come from the present conditions surrounding the present Congress, but never fear there are too many favorable conditions to permit anything but prosperity in the near future.

Tides and Weather. I can not advise, through the public press, when farmers and planters should sell their products. If I did the big speculators would reap all the benefits, but I can advise to wait. That is the word; wait.

I have not published my theories as to how the planets affect our weather but I can venture to explain the tides. The orthodox scientists claim that the tides are caused by the attraction of gravitation. But that is quite false to explain. If gravity is the cause, if the moon's attraction makes the tides, then enough water must pass through the Atlantic ocean in to Chesapeake Bay in six hours to raise the water of that bay six feet. That settles it. The fact is impossible and no Harvard Professor will dare say that it is.

I have long known the tides to be caused by electrolysis. The electric force from the sun and moon condenses the waters immediately under those bodies and there we find the low tides. That force pushes to its polarity on the opposite side of the earth and there we find the low tides again. The returning magnetic spirals, 45 degrees away from the sun and moon electric currents, electrolyze the salt water, swell it and there we find the high tides. Electrolysis does not act on fresh water and therefore no tides in fresh water lakes while in fresh tide water rivers the tides are caused by waves and backwater.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, Dec. 19, 1871.—Charles Conrad was taking a drive in the fourth ward this afternoon, thinking about Christmas and things, when the safety valve of the grocery wagon dropped out and his horse ran off with the front part of the vehicle, leaving Charles lying on the ground with his mouth full of snow. Fortunately he struck a soft spot and escaped injury. Winter wheat flour for sale at the usual low rates and delivered free of charge as soon as he can find the chills. The old joke about a fall in groceries is ruled out on this occasion.

The thermometer indicated 2 degrees below zero this morning at seven o'clock and 1 above at 2 o'clock p. m. Two inches of snow fell last night. The state of Illinois lost 28,348 soldiers during the late rebellion. The London Times approves of President Grant's proposition for incorporating the telegraphs with the postoffice department, in the relation to the establishment of savings banks, and for the modification of the civil service in the direction of reform.

Our readers are aware that during the fall the common council of this city appointed a committee of that body to investigate a survey of the proposed railroad from Janesville to Evansville. The work was performed in a very satisfactory manner by Captain Edward Ringer, civil engineer. This work was undertaken to enable our people more intelligently to present the subject of the construction of the road to the North Western railroad company. The engineers of the company were well pleased with the profile and specifications presented by Captain Ringer and expressed their gratification and surprise at the completeness, accuracy, and general excellence of the work. The committee coupled with the proposition to build the Evansville road, the construction of a road from here to Afton.

UNCLE WALT The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams BY WALT MASON

Don't try to tell a story to any group or throng, if it is stale and hoary, with whiskers two foot long. For anecdotes blue mouldily give all good men a pain, and should tell a story dizey, however good it seems, to fellows who are busy with their own private schemes. For men who bore when telling are likely to arise, their blood with anger boiling, and seek you in the eyes. Don't tell to gent or lady, to anyone you know, an anecdote that's shady—such stories go to show that he who tells them's more a donkey in disguise, with ears so long they nearly brush-cowhairs from the skies. Don't tell a tale that's longer than is the moral law, or some one who is stronger may snipe you on the jaw. A dozen story tellers just churn up with their tales, where forty thousand fellows produce but sighs and wails. You'll win but little glory, perhaps, make people groan, don't try to tell a story unless you a alone!

Dear Santa Claus I had a stocking made to order this year. It seems to be so full of nice things as she does her shopping early so I thought I would prepare for it.

Always the Shortest. Edgeworth: A straight line is the shortest in morals as in mathematics.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES

By HOWARD L. RANN.

Leap Year. Leap year is a providential recurrence designated to take the race outside theory out of the joke column. It happens once in every four years and usually results in thinking out the surplus spinsters. Every man looks upon leap year as a joke until he is backed up into a hay window and given his choice between a church wedding and a breach of promise suit, after which he realizes that life is real and life is earnest.

Leap year is primarily useful in showing whether a program—anything—suits business. After a worthy woman has seen an eligible bachelor at her fudge and had the electric light bill for several years, at the same time dodging every opening with the agility of a quarter-back, she is perfectly justified in selling time by the felloek at some leap year party and leading him up to the burning question in a retired corner of the conservatory. Some men are too timid to propose, but they aren't too timid to absorb all the steam heat in a six-room flat for a term of years and keep everybody in the block gawking as to their intentions. Leap year has served as the last call to the dining car for many a joyous widow who has wearied of furnishing entertainment and waiting table to a suitor who is slower than the dawning of the millennial morn. Leap year has wrung a decided angel marriage coin out of many a reluctant spinster who otherwise would camp in the front parlor until her hair turned white. Leap year has been aptly described as the old maid's opportunity, and if she is wise she will make the most of it.

Ready. Rev. Gude—"Isn't there some one here who will help us to keep up interest in the church?" Deacon Tightwad (muddenly awakened)—"I, for one, am prepared to raise the rates to 8 per cent. on real estate loans and 10 per cent. on chattel mortgages, if the other money lenders in the congregation will co-operate."—Puck.
